I have 2.8 years of total work experience in the HR and Staffing fields.

1 year of work experience as 1.8 years in the Human Resource field, which includes internships and contract-based jobs.

To my Family background -

We are four in the family and have one older sister who is married. I live with my parents.

I have plans to contribute my services to society in 1 or 2 ways.

Like my contribution to my nation,

This means that I need to perform to a high standard when I'm in my job to achieve those goals so I'm very focused on my work, am very good at organizing and planning and am diligent in my work.

I am happy working on my own, but I also love to work as a part of a team for the common objective

Over the years, I have built up a diverse range of skills and qualities for the corporate world.

Well, this is about me.

2. Why do you want to get this job?

I love being at work. I love enjoying corporate discipline and this will be the right

I can enjoy my life too by completing the tasks on time and managing the risks.

and pressure, type of communicating with co-workers, and leading a structured lifestyle through challenges.

The primary reason would be that my profile almost matches this job role, and it is a

This is a highly reputed and growing company, so these are the reasons for the self-actualization.

to obtain this job.

3. Why should we hire you?

I am a loyal, driven, and professional employee. Having analyzed the job description in has the appropriate skills, attributes, and level of quality within the role.

Resource

I am naturally someone who wants to excel in everything I do, and I understand your success. Your success as an organization is inextricably linked to the performance of subordinates within the roles, such as this one.

If you hire me as a human resource, not only will I deliver on my promise consistently, but I'll also uphold your organization's values and principles whilst doing so.

As it is the basic discipline of an employee to get personally connected to the organization for parallel growth.

4. Why have you chosen to work to our company as —————

I have chosen your company because having researched you in detail you not only have exciting plans for the future for the diverse level of and services you offer means demanding and very growing. Advancement in technologies, Globalization is the important topic in the prevailing situations that we are supposed to debate on hence inferring that I have chosen the right industry which is the scope and growth factor for an individual.

-You treat your employees well, You strive for the common objective with the collective efforts of each individual. I mean each individual is liberal to their contribution to the company and skills and qualities are effectively used.

I feel this industry would be the perfect match for my skills, knowledge, and Future.

5. What technique do you utilise?

The techniques I would utilize involved the "tried and tested" method before implementation. The method ensures I bring in consistent, high qualifying, and high converting leads. To begin with, my recruitment strategy would include a careful analysis of your organization so the business leads are generated according to your services. So it means based on the requirement of the position I would attractively design the campaign, by visualization. And will utilize digital media and social media to get a high number of leads.

I would mostly get the interested candidates connected rather than calling myself from any source of leads. This method consumes more time of mine and involves me in properly filtering the interested leads.

6. Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

The Company I work with is very important to me, I spend a lot of time at work and genuinely want that time to be put or used in a good effective role and enjoy doing so. In 5 years I still plan to work for you. I envisage having developed considerably by undertaking some certificate courses and learning new skills being on job. I would also be a trusted, certified, and high-performing member of the team and perhaps even gained the advancement in senior-level positions. So I would see myself in a higher position in your company, Essentially I want to build my career with your company

7. What are your strengths?

I have many strengths, One thing that sparks my mind is communication.

Even though my English communication may not be flawless, I'm good at my Soft & Low voice in all situations, because audacity has nothing to do with success and interpersonal and soft skills would also be my strength.

8. What is your weakness?

I too have a few weaknesses, Multitasking would be my 1st weakness, because in absence of proper organizing and planning my work chaos occurs which then leads to losses and mistakes. Consequently, after recognizing my weakness I started to prioritize my work by organizing, planning and then executing. So my weakness is now turned up to my strength again. Multitasking is effective if the process is properly aligned.
